Wiesbaden Tourist Information centre.

The countdown is on, and the sparkling wine is already cold! The longest party night of the year is rolling around again, starting at 8 p.m. at Henkell Freixenet on Saturday, 26th October. What could be better than celebrating the last night of summer with tingly German sparkling wine and great music at a legendary sparkling wine party?

The programme includes R'n'B, pop, soul and jazz acts to get the party guests moving in the impressive marble hall where the event will be held. Those who prefer a mellower setting can listen to some jazz, swing and pop music in the "Degorgierhalle" and enjoy hors d'oeuvres in the chill-out lounge.

The stars of Sparkling Wine Night 2019:

Live performances by Nathalie Dorra, Shave Randle, Julianna Townsend and the hot DJ Alex 'K'

One of Germany's most famous soul singers, Nathalie Dorra, will be bringing the right beat for a party atmosphere "All Night Long". She has recorded with a virtual Who's Who of international pop stars including Mousse T, Randy Crawford, Xavier Naidoo and Jan Delay. She accompanied Udo Lindenberg on his "Atlantik Affairs" tour, sang for Mohammed Ali and was part of an opening act for James Brown called Soullounge - and will now be performing live at Henkell Freixenet Sparkling Wine Night!

Shave Randle, who first appeared as a rapper at age 10 and started recording at age 13, is a multifaceted artist who combines rap with vocal singing - which is uncommon in Germany. The artists Laith Al Deen and Xavier Naidoo collaborated for his "Mannheim Song", written in honour of the 400th anniversary of the city of Mannheim, and Randle always comes up with sparkling new ideas and music mashups that keep the dance floors full.

Those who still can't get enough, can hit the dance floor to the sounds of DJ Alex 'K'! As one of the top DJs in the German state of North Rhine-Westphalia, he's a fixture at all kinds of society events, with a musical spectrum ranging from oldies to rock, pop and party music from the 70s, 80s, 90s as well as current music from the charts, house, electro, R'n'B and much more.

For eyes and ears: a percussion spectacle with the Habama Brothers

Masters of the entire spectrum of percussion instruments, the brothers Habibi and Amadu have appeared at countless African festivals throughout Germany and on radio and television. Their DJ & Drums concept unites African drum culture with modern sounds. The dancing crowd will certainly be thrilled by this innovative combination.

Car service for a safe trip home

And since Henkell Freixenet wants everybody to be able to enjoy their sparkling product array and still get home safely, the Mercedes-Benz car service Taunus-Auto will be on hand. Guests living within a range of roughly 20 kilometres can take advantage of the service for a safe ride home. Those who have driven to the party can pick up their cars at the Henkell Freixenet car park on Sunday. www.taunus-auto.de; www.facebook.com/taunusauto
