

Crowned with 23 gold medals:

Henkell Freixenet receives numerous awards at the 31st Grand International Wine Award MUNDUS VINI and Berlin Wine Trophy competitions

Wiesbaden, September 2022. Henkell Freixenet has every reason to celebrate. The world's leading sparkling wine producer was awarded an impressive 23 gold medals by the expert jury at the 31st Grand International Wine Award MUNDUS VINI and the Berlin Wine Trophy competitions. Among those medals were two Berlin Wine Trophy Grand Gold Medals and a 'Best of Show Prosecco Rosé' award from MUNDUS VINI.

Some of the biggest winners were the Henkell, Mionetto, Fürst von Metternich and Menger-Krug sparkling wines. The Alfred Gratien Champagnes also made a very positive impression, winning a total of 8 gold medals and the two Grand Gold Medals for Alfred Gratien Cuvée Paradis 2013 and Alfred Gratien Millesime 2007. A MUNDUS VINI 'Best of Show Prosecco Rosé' award for Mionetto Prosecco represents another impressive achievement: "We are delighted to be the recipient of this prized award. It once again confirms the excellent quality of Mionetto Prosecco, the internationally best-selling Prosecco brand."
